SCUUF Programs and Activities for August - All programs will be held at the Dolphin Theater at 10 am except as noted otherwise.

November Programs – The Cycle of Life: The Later Years and End of Life

Nov. 1 - Spiritual Development: Robin McCreery will lead the discussion about how our spiritual life changes (or doesn’t) as we age and approach the end of our life.

Nov. 1. Program Planning Committee meeting following coffee hour.

Nov. 8 - Community Involvement - The Share the Care Program was introduced to us by Daina Swanson, former SCUUFer, when facing her own passing. A number of her friends assisted her during her last months using this approach. Jean, Linda, and Thea will describe the program and how it worked including their roles in it.

Nov. 15 - Retirement, a discussion about how we decide when to retire, how you approached it, and how well it worked for you. Even if this is far in the future for you, with luck the time will come.

Nov. 22 - Thanksgiving Potluck at Martin Annex, Noon. SCUUF will provide a roasted turkey. Please bring a side dish or dessert and your beverage of choice.

Nov. 29 - Economic Inequality - At the UUA General Assembly in June, Linda & Jean attended a program that was to feature Thom Hartmann, the radio host, author, and progressive political commentator. Due to illness, he was unable to make it but the topic of his most recent book, “The Crash of 2016,” was discussed and we were intrigued. Come and learn more.

Current Program Series.

The Program Planning Team put together a program series for the months of September through November called “The Cycle of Life.” September focussed on the early years, childhood and young adulthood; basically birth through schooling. October covered midlife, essentially the working years up to retirement/age 65 or thereabouts. And in November we focus on the later years and end of life issues.

We have programs in each month looking at Spiritual Development, Community Involvement and Economic Inequality during each of the stages of life. But there are topics we find that are very appropriate to that stage of life but that don’t quite fit into our neat little plan, so please be understanding.

Thanks from the Program Planning Team: Jean, Robin, Bobbie, Thea, Charles, Lynn, Linda
A Look Back a Few Days
Our last gathering was at Sarita and Jerry’s home where we celebrated the Mexican Day of the Dead on October 25. The picture below is typical of the activities during the very stirring presentations by fellowship members and friends of SCUUF alike. It has been a difficult year for losses of our loved ones, and talking about them rightfully dominated the otherwise cheerful celebration of others we loved who are no longer here. It was a very emotionally involving service!
