SCUUF Programs and Activities for September - All programs will be held at the Dolphin Theater at 10 am except as noted otherwise.

September Programs

September 4. Potluck at Suzann (Robins) and Gary Stroup's home. (September 5 is Labor Day). Noon.

Directions: 63498 Andrews in Coos Bay. Heading south on US 101, turn right on Harriett after Coalbank Slough bridge, just past the Stock Pot and before El Sol Mexican Restaurant.

Take the first right at stop sign and then 2nd left onto Andrews. The street sign is covered with foliage right now, but there is a blue school bus stop on the right. We are a yellow house 1/2 way up the hill on the right, between Boise and Alabama. The numbers don't go in order, but there is a zebra mail box and you can park along the road. Phone (551) 206-9830 when you get lost.

September 11. Rabbi Michael Lerner video, a discussion of his book "The Left Hand of God."
Program Planning Meeting follows the service.

September 18. "The Tao of Caring" Sarita Southgate will explore what "Caring" really is, and how it may enrich our lives.

September 25. "Solutions for homeless people aged 18-25" by Kelly Klepzig, an articulate and homeless person living in Coos Bay.

September 30, Friday - Tom Neilson concert at the Dolphin Theater. 7:00 pm. See review of Tom and his music, below.

Nancy Deveraux Center Fundraiser: Update
Asiale Crumley reports that the fundraiser "probably made about $4500" although a final accounting of income and expenses has not yet been made."

The "Jon Stewart* of Folk Music" comes to the Dolphin Playhouse!

Yes, SCUUF is sponsoring Tom Neilson, folk singer, who provides a voice for those who believe in the power of folk music to effect change. His award-winning songs of humor and compassion have been performed in 21 countries on 5 continents. His lyrics are celebrated for their sophistication, political astuteness, and wit.

Combining art with activism, he has appeared with Medea Benjamin, Cynthia McKinney, Amy Goodman, Cindy Sheehan, Cesar Chavez, Noam Chomsky, Ralph Nader, Ray McGovern, Howard Zinn, David Cobb, and many others, and played at the Martin Luther King Center in Havana, Cuba.

His travels are reflected in his songs, intertwined with farm roots and a fervent commitment to social justice, as he writes about historical and current events. He has been at the forefront in helping communities organize against pipelines, water privatization, mountain top removal, nuclear energy, incinerators, GMOs, fracking, & toxic waste. His songs draw the listener into his musical response to globalization.

He plays at union halls, colleges, conferences, cafes, house concerts, and has performed for countless benefits and causes. His music has been used in documentaries, TV shows, stage and street theater as he tells the stories of people's struggles against greed & violence, interjecting a good deal of levity along the way.

He lives in Greenville, MA with his wife and son.

*At the Kerrville (TX) Folk Festival, which has a 45-year history, he was referred to as the Jon Stewart of folk music.
