SCUUF Programs and Activities for October - All programs will be held Sundays at 10:00 am at the Dolphin Theater.

October Theme: Sanctuary

October 7. Dr. Ruth Miller. Before the Europeans Arrived on this Sacred Land. Dr. Miller draws on her background in anthropology to explore America's culture clashes. We're all immigrants to this continent, even the Native Americans, or, as the Canadians say, "First Nations" who were here before the Europeans wandered over from other lands. Whether your family came 40 or 40,000 years ago, they came here looking for a safe and supportive environment to fulfill their dreams. Yet in the process they destroyed much of what was already in place. Now we have a new kind of understanding emerging about what is sacred, as we begin to learn from the first nations' relationship to each other and the land.

October 14. Jessica Lloyd-Rogers. The Inner Sanctuary: Refuge, Renewal and ReMember. Discover the importance of an Inner Sanctuary for peace and balance in the midst of a chaotic world.

October 21. Robin McCreery. Hearth and Home. The mysteries of Home and Hearth will be explored. Cultures around the world have customs, charms and magics that guard and protect the home. We will also meet some of the gods, goddesses and spirit beings that share the mortal spaces we live in.

October 28. Rev. Stephen Landale. The Magic of Place. Do you suffer from "topophilia," love of a particular place? Using his own experiences, Rev. Stephen Landale will reflect on sacred places in our lives – in nature, literature, and even those we co-create. After a dozen years of UU parish ministry, Rev. Landale has been a hospice chaplain in Corvallis and now Eugene for over six years.

Free Caregiver Classes: Powerful Tools for Caregivers

A free series of caregiver classes runs for six consecutive Wednesdays –October 3, 10, 17, 24, 31, November 7 2018. Please choose afternoons or evenings and register for only one series.

- afternoons from 3:00 – 4:30
- evenings from 6:00 – 7:30

Bay Area Community Health & Education Center, 3950 Sherman, NB (across from Baycrest Village)

This class teaches skills to help unpaid caregivers take care of themselves. Valuable information and personal sharing benefits anyone who is caring for an older adult --family member, neighbor or friend whether they are living with you, nearby or across the country.

For more information, e-mail Char Luther, ckluther@hotmail.com with Caregiver in subject line or call her at 541.297.9256. Classes and accompanying book are free thanks to funding from Area Agency on Ageing, a service of South Coast Business Employment Corporation. Class size is limited, and registration is necessary.

Creating the life we all want requires asking very different questions, seeing with our inner vision, and exploring with both heart and mind.

Join Dr. Ruth Miller and friends as we explore some of her fascinating research and discoveries in future studies and consciousness. In an informal format she'll share some of the answers she's found to questions like:

- Is the world coming to an end or is something else happening?
- Is there any reality to Channeling and Mediumship? Abraham? Seth?
- How are new technologies really affecting us?

In the Media Room at Evergreen Court
at BayCrest Village
451 O'Connell St, North Bend
Saturday, Oct 6, 2-4pm

Ruth L Miller, Ph.D. offers a clear explanation of how our world works. A systems scientist who is also a minister and community/organizational development consultant, she holds degrees in anthropology, cybernetics, environmental studies, and the systems sciences, and has written numerous books and articles. Miller is director of the Gaia Living Systems Institute in Newport, Oregon and serves as pastor for the South Coast (Coos Bay) Unitarian Universalist Fellowship.
